NO REHEARING.

As aftermath of the recent ruling off case at Oakland, the San Francisco Chronicle of Tuesday says:

"Gossip concerning the turf scandal that resulted in the ruling off of three jockeys and a bookmaker by the New California Jockey Club continued unabated yesterday at the Emeryville course, but it remained for President Thomas H. Williams to shed the only new ray of light on the matter. He scoffed at the protestations of innocence on the part of the men who have been visited with the supreme punishment that may be meted out by race track officials and simply stated that the proof of guilt was so conclusive that no mistake could have been made.

"There will be no open hearing where the culprits may come before the stewards of the Jockey Club and protest their innocence," said Mr. Williams in a decided manner. "They have had their hearing for the past ten days when every move has been watched and carefully noted. The only thing I am sorry for is that we failed to reach another person connected with the affair. I am unable to state whether he was a bookmaker, jockey, owner or valet, but we may be content with calling him a 'go-between.' There are circumstances connected with the scandal that precluded the possibility of giving him what he justly deserved, but I believe that he is thoroughly frightened and will give us no cause for action in the future.

"We had occasion to watch bookmaker Davis last year, but could not catch him with the 'goods.' His offer to donate $10,000 to charity in case we can prove that he was seen in the company of any of the disgraced jockeys is ridiculous. Davis knows that we will not reveal the source of our information. It would spoil possible detection in the future. No matter how loudly he declares his innocence and poses as a martyr, the public may rest assured that the action taken by our stewards was neither hasty nor unjust.

"Many people have come to me in the interest of jockey D. Hall, saying that even if the others be guilty they were certain that his record was clean. I may say that such sympathy is wasted. He had his chance to become a great race rider and make fame and money in a legitimate way. He chose to take the short cut to wealth and is equally culpable with the rest. It is quite impossible for me to tell how and where we learned of the specific cases in connection with this affair, which we deplore just as much as the bettors who lost their money, but I think that our action should be a guarantee to racegoers that we intend to conduct the game properly and keep it on the plane where it belongs.

"We took up the sheets of every bookmaker in the ring after the Divina race on Saturday. No favorites were played by our association. Previous to that handicap the association caused two $500 bets to be placed on Divina with Davis' book. It was a trap laid for his special benefit, as we already had proof of his dealings with the jockeys, but wanted to make the case complete. His book had the top price up to the time we ordered a change of jockeys from Hall to J. Martin. We afterwards sent $1,000 more to be wagered on Divina to win, and Davis declined to take any part of it. As the race was run we saved the other $1,000. That was simply a small part of our chain of evidence, and the result of our inquiry rested on that to only a minute degree. Justice has been done and the incident is closed as far as the New California Jockey Club is concerned. It should be a warning for all evil-doers."

"Bookmaker James Davis was indignant at the ruling and claimed that he was the victim of a conspiracy. Offers of large rewards for deserving charity were made if his connection with anything crooked could be proved to the world at large. His sheet on the Divina race was explained by messages from several persons who were in a position to believe that the Terry mare could not beat her field at the weights. That he took no money on the mare after the change of jockeys was waived aside by the declaration that he had overstocked himself with money on that particular entry and wanted to 'round out' his book. In connection with the Cascine-Don Domo race, where his slate had the top price against the 'gray ghost,' Davis said that he had been influenced by Clarence Waterhouse's statement that he considered Cascine to be a 'cinch.' In reply Waterhouse said that no such words had issued from his lips to Davis or any one else. Whether Don Domo can beat Cascine at equal weights may never be settled, as it was stated at the track yesterday that J. F. Newman, owner of the fast gray gelding, would ship his stable to Los Angeles within the week and start no more of his horses in San Francisco."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Starter Fitzgerald has inaugurated a new system in sending his fields away from the post at New Orleans. From now on the horses will be lined up fifty yards back of the barrier and allowed to walk up. If they are in line they will be sent off, otherwise they will be made to stand up to the barrier and sent away flatfooted. This will save time and no doubt give better satisfaction to the owners and public alike.

Secretary Clark has received word from Registrar Wheeler, of the Jockey Club, that the horse Ravino had been properly registered. The markings of the horse correspond with those given on the registration papers. With this information in hand Secretary Clark informed the owners of Ravino that Ravino would be permitted to start if they produced five reputable horsemen who would satisfactorily identify the horse.

George C. Bennett made his first appearance of the New Orleans meeting last Wednesday. Mr. Bennett went down from Memphis and will remain several days. He had a good bet on Dan McKenna. It was the first time he had the pleasure of seeing his recent purchase carry his colors, and had the further satisfaction of cashing several good bets on Dan McKenna after the race.

H. P. Headley, owner of Ornament and the Beaumont Farm, is a visitor at New Orleans. Mr. Headley's visit is on pleasure only, and he will spend a few weeks in the Crescent City.

G. C. Bennett has purchased of R. Tucker the promising two-year-old Misanthrope. This colt has won his last two races in rather impressive fashion, and it looks as if Bennett had made a very desirable addition to the string which he is racing at New Orleans.

J. W. Schorr and S. S. Brown, who have extensive racing strings in winter retirement at Montgomery Park, will sell off all surplus stock now racing at New Orleans. The Schorr string in the Crescent City embraces Dutiful, Monastic II. and other youngsters eligible for many three-year-old stakes for 1904.

Winner—B. g. by Chorister—Zodiac (trained by E. Trotter).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Scorpio beat the barrier and was off running, while the others were all tangled up and opened a lead in the first furlong which could not be overcome. Van Ness wore New York down while rounding the far turn and finished fast. Elsie L. ran well and got third place in the last stride. New York ran disappointingly and tired badly in the stretch.
Scratched—43134 Ivernia, 112.

Winner—Br. f. by Watercross—Touche Pas (trained by A. J. Plique).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Parisienne showed a fine turn of speed, raced to the front in the first furlong and set a fast pace, but was tiring at the end and had to be shaken up. Belle Mahone began slowly and had to go around her field to get up, but finished fast. Tiopa tired in the last sixteenth. Sweet Nell was always outrun. Irene Mac was used up in chasing the winner in the first three furlongs and tired in the stretch run.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Modred—Woodford filly (trained by L. Tauber).
Went to post at 3:04. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Montebank ran to his best form, went around the leaders at the first turn and raced into the lead without much effort, but had to be hard ridden in the last furlong to stall off Sea Shark. The latter made a bold effort at the turn into the homestretch, but tired after getting to Montebank. Wreath of Ivy was under a hard drive in the last sixteenth to stall off Mildred L. The latter was bumped at the start and knocked back, but closed a big gap and would have beaten Wreath of Ivy in a few more strides. Overhand and Soldier of Fortune tired in the last furlong.
Scratched—43059 John Doyle, 108; 43075 Collin George, 98.
Corrected weights—Overhand, 103.
Overweights—Mildred L., 1^g pounds; Scotch Thistle, 5.

Trust You

I hold a strictly confidential position to certain horsemen who are "in the inner circle." My duties require me to remain in Chicago all winter. I receive private advices from New Orleans and California which seldom exceed three a week all told. The horses wired me are to be played around the country by those on the inside. To reliable parties I will furnish these advices in cypher until after the horse I wire has won. Then I expect as my compensation a small percentage of the winnings. On account of the position I hold I cannot afford to use my own name in an advertisement. If you will drop me a line I will explain more fully.

ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT CHARGE

during the past week wired eighteen horses to their army of followers. Of these thirteen won, two finished third and three unplaced. They comprise the best the market affords at New Orleans and San Francisco, where Messrs. Alfred and Herbert Peabody are stationed permanently and look after the interests of our clients and our racing stable. On Thursday the Western element anticipate to make their first killing of the year, and, bar accident, result is a foregone conclusion, as in case of Totness, won at 40 to 1, and advised in same manner. Mr. Herbert Peabody speaks of an equally good thing which is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 19th, at Frisco. Obtain these two as a sample of inside information. No boasting. No hot air. Business on business principles, that's all. Usual terms, $2.00 per wire. Prices expected on the above two, 10 to 1 or better. Write for particulars concerning our discretionary basis and details concerning the famous Ballantine Method cheerfully furnished. Another winning week just closed. Profits, $30.50 per hundred, with 5 per cent at stake. Address all mail to Suite 202, Stewart Building, 280 Broadway, New York. Tel. 705 Franklin. Register mail containing funds.

WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

NEW ORLEANS FORM CHART--CONTINUED.

Went to post at 3:36. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Dutiful broke from the extreme outside and had to go around his field to get up, came wide at the turn into the homestretch and, finishing fast, caught Conkling tiring and got up in the last few strides. Conkling met with a lot of interference and had to go through on the inside in the run down the backstretch, but saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and, finishing out gamely, was unlucky to lose. J. P. Mayberry was always prominent and ran to his best form. Duncan ran well to the stretch, but tired in the last furlong. Monastic II. showed early speed, but tired under his heavy impost when the hard racing came on. Exclamation went well for a half only.

Scratched—43097 Morning Star, 110.

Overweights—Louis Kraft, 2 pounds; Sadie Burch, 3.

Schorr entry, show, 6 to 5. Conkling, show, 2 to 1. J. P. Mayberry, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. f. by St. Maxim—Sarah Ramey (trained by J. Phillips).

Went to post at 4:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Sarah Maxim began slowly and went all around her field, came wide at the turn into the stretch, finished with a rush and outgamed Bard of Avon. The latter was much used in chasing Past and tired when the final drive came. Past was at home in the sloppy going and showed early speed, but tired under pressure. Circus Girl was eased up at the end. Bellario sulked all the way. Homestead dropped out of it on the backstretch and dislikes muddy going.

Scratched—43020 Hegira, 91; (43114) Kiwasa, 91; 43135 Royal Pirate, 83.

Winner—B. g. by Florist—Donna Sol (trained by W. Carroll).

Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Adelante ran under restraint for the first mile and went to the front when called on, but had to be hustled along in the final furlong to stall off a challenge from The Bobby. The latter came wide at the turn into the homestretch and finished with a rush. Siddons finished on the inside in the deepest going and tired in the last twenty yards. Airlight was never dangerous. Hayward Hunter dropped out of it after going a mile. Free Admission set the early pace on sufferance.

Winner—Br. c. by Atheling—Judy (trained by M. J. Daly).

Went to post at 2:10. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second easily. Judge broke running and immediately went to the front, widened the gap as the race progressed to the stretch, where he finished in a canter. Avenger was outrun while going up the backstretch and in close quarters, losing his good early position, but moved up on the far turn and when straightened for home finished with a phenomenal rush. Winifreda was a prominent contender almost throughout and ran a fast and game race. Miss Ringlets got away poorly, made up ground rapidly and, after loosing up on the stretch turn, unexpectedly fell away. Miss May Bowdish was badly ridden, but showed a fine burst of speed for five furlongs.

Judge, show, 1 to 3. Avenger, show, 1 to 3. Winifreda, show, evens.

Time, 1:10.

Winner—Br. c. by Brutus—Nerva (trained by C. M. Hollenback).

Went to post at 2:39. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Nervator ran as if he outclassed his field and, except for a brief interval, when he relinquished the lead to Tower of Candles, made his own running throughout and was cantering at the end. Mocoito, next to the rail where deep going prevailed and closely hemmed in in the early running, closed up fast in the stretch run. Fort Wayne, badly handled and beginning slowly, improved his position to the stretch, where he closed up with a belated rush and was probably second best. Matt Hogan, away flatfooted, picked up his field rapidly after he got into his stride and finished a fast going fourth. Muresca, strictly a mud-lark, found the going too dry. Tower of Candles showed her usual brilliant speed, but failed to stay. Pickaway and Captivate were both outclassed here.

Scratched—42896 Diderot, 106; 43095 Glenarvon, 106; 43129 Sallie Goodwin, 103; Misty's Pride, 55.

Winner—Ch. g. by Mariner—Plumeria (trained by D. Cameron).

Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second driving. H. L. Frank outbroke his company and proceeded to spread eagle his field, showed amazing speed and won pulled up away off by himself. Military Man, next to the rail and inside deep going, in addition to running in close quarters almost throughout, put up a strong effort in the stretch and decisively outstayed the others. The Cure, shuffled back at the start, held on steadily and well up and made good with a superior stretch run. Lustig, a good looker, gave evidence of speed and stamina and but for an early effort to overhaul the winner might have been second. Atlantico closed a tremendous gap. Libbie Candid finished fast and close up. Instructor was quickly sent after the flying leader and held second place for a brief interval on the far turn, but was evidently short, as he tired badly in the final drive. The Hawaiian is improving. Ebony got away badly and was probably handicapped by the soft going. Whoa Bill was knocked out of the race and finished pulling up.

Scratched—43141 Flo Manola, 107.

H. L. Frank, show, 7 to 10. Military Man, show, 7 to 10. The Cure, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Br. g. by Fresno—Fairstone (trained by A. B. Pomeroy).

Went to post at 3:39. At post 7 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Fossil got away in the lead and decisively outpaced and outstayed his field and is a good horse under light weight. Warthe Nicht steadily improved his position and finished with a meteoric rush, ran a high-class race and liked the soft going. Princess Titania, next to the rail in the deep going, was more or less impeded to the stretch, where she began closing up fast and got third place in the last stride and is in grand form. Iredeus tired in the stretch run after running lapped on Fossil almost throughout and seemed to have been caught napping for second place, as Martin eased him slightly at the end when he saw he could not beat the leader. Martinmas had a rough journey and came from a long way back at the end. Saintly made up ground from start to finish and is a genuinely improved horse. Divina, nearly left, finished running faster than her field. San Nicholas failed to stay and could never get into serious contention. Hagerdon went a fast six furlongs before he retired. Evea G. had no chance at the start. John A. Scott failed to stay. Arabo had no chance.

Time, 26, 51, 1:17, 1:43, 2:08.

Winner—B. h. by St. Mark—Chalange (trained by J. Pelter).

Went to post at 4:19. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Chub is more than a useful horse that has matured lately, kept well within striking distance of the pacemaker and made good with a great stretch run, is a genuine stayer and can beat good ones. Position was excessively used in the early running and, tiring right at the end, swerved across the course in the last sixteenth. Properly rated, he would probably have won. The Fretter failed to stay after helping

COAST FORM.

From early last May until the end of October several hundred horses were running at meetings held at Los Angeles, Sacramento, and Petaluma, California, and Seattle, Washington. A number were credited with notable performances. All of these horses will take part in the San Francisco and Los Angeles meetings, and knowledge of their performances is necessary to those who wish to consider intelligently the relative merits of the horses that will be raced at the two cities named. Daily Racing Form has prepared a record of the racing at the two Sacramento meetings, the Petaluma meeting, the Los Angeles October meeting and the long Seattle meeting, and it is now ready for sale at 15 cents.
